Proclamation
WHEREAS, the basic foundation of our freedom lies in our inalienable right to worship God in the church of our choice and in the courage of our men and women in the Armed Forces who go forth on the field of battle in order to protect our beloved country; and

Burke to Direct Drive for Boy Scout Funds

Sylvette Burke will be Scoutmaster at the helm this year as the citizens of Hope launch a drive to raise Boy Scout finances for 1954. Mr. Burke has been associated with the Boy Scout movement for several years serving as Hempstead District advancement chairman, Advance Chairman for the Caddo Area Council and a member of the Council Executive Board. He has been active in very many local civic activities and is an active member of the First Methodist Church.

No quota has been set for Hope in the coming campaign although everyone, it is hoped, will be given an opportunity to invest in Scouting.

A goal, not a quota, has been set at $2700 and is not considered out of line in view of all the fine youth work Scouting is doing in our town.

Mr. Burke has announced that he has received excellent cooperation in recruiting new men to date for the opening of the campaign is set for Oct. 8. It is to be work for Scouting thus far. The remembered that "Building Boys is better than mending men."

Mineral Springs Man Succumbs at Nashville

Jess Lee Schooley, aged 57, died late Tuesday in a Nashville hospital. He was a resident of Mineral Springs.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Ray of Texarkana, a daughter, Mrs. Neva Goodwin of Texarkana, a brother, Dick Schooley of Mineral Springs; two sisters, Mrs. Maude Cowling of Mineral Springs and Mrs. Omie Russell of Texarkana.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Wednesday at the Central Baptist Church of Mineral Springs. Burial will be at Mineral Springs in charge of Herndon-Cornelius.

Priest Rescues Divorcee From 20-Floor Ledge

CHICAGO (UP)—A 36-year-old divorcee teetered for an hour and half from a 20th-floor ledge of the Tribune Tower today, threatening to jump, but was pulled to safety by a priest who lured her to a window with her pet dog.

Mrs. Millicent Armin, an unemployed switchboard operator, was being taken to a police station for psychiatric treatment when she eluded her father, ran into the building, facing on Michigan Boulevard, and took an elevator to the floor where she climbed from the window.

She was on her perch an hour and 35 minutes before she was rescued. Hundreds of persons crowded the streets below watching her and for a time traffic was slowed on Michigan Boulevard.

The Rev. Robert Herne of the Roman Catholic Holy Name cathedral was summoned to the scene as Mrs. Armin's father, Sigmund, pleaded with her to leave her perch and reenter the building.

The Rev. Herne added his entreaties to that of Armin who finally rushed to his Northwest side home with a police escort and returned with Mrs. Armin's dog.

The priest held the dog, a big brown boxer, at the window and a fire department official called out to Mrs. Armin.

"Lucky is here."

Mrs. Armin took a step or two toward the window and the priest dropped the dog to the floor. He and Fire Marshal James R. Hughes, 50, lunged forward, grabbed Mrs. Armin, and hauled her to safety.

Cotton Picking on in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—Picking of fair to good yields of early and mid-season Arkansas cotton is in full swing.

The weekly crop report said yesterday that the late crop was reduced by drought, particularly in north Arkansas, with dry weather causing early opening of the bolls.

The report said harvest of a fairly good crop of early rice is continuing with confining expected to reach its height by Oct. 1.

Bangs Disease Vaccinations Start Oct. 5

Joe Hamilton, Vaccinator, Bureau of Animal Industry, advised this morning that calfhood vaccination for the prevention of Bangs Disease was planned to start in Hempstead County October 5.

All livestock owners with one or more replacement heifers 4 to 8 months of age may have them vaccinated by advising County Agent Oliver L. Adams. It is necessary that calves be vaccinated only once.

For additional information, contact the county agent.

UN Delivers 22,600 to Indians

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
SEQUEL.—The U. N. Command today turned over to neutral Indian troops the last of some 22,600 prisoners who renounced communism, leaving Allied stockades empty of captives for the first time in three years.

With the final delivery came a surprise announcement that the Allies will not send observers to watch the arrival at the neutral zone Thursday of 350 Allied soldiers the Reds say don't want to go home. They include 23 Americans, 1 Briton and 35 South Koreans, according to a Communist newspaper.

Red observers watched the two-week transfer to the demilitarized zone of Allied-held POWs refusing repatriation. But the U. N. Command said "we do not feel that the presence of UNC observers is necessary to insure a fair and successful handling of the turnover from the Communists."

The Allied announcement added "we have confidence in the ability of the CFI (Custodian Force, India) to carry out its mission."

'Exceptional Child' Subject of Panel

Members of the Hempstead County Classroom Teachers Association heard a panel discussion of "The Exceptional Child" at a meeting in the Hope Junior High School library following a dinner in the High School cafeteria on Monday night.

With Haskell Jones, KXAR announcer, acting as moderator, the panel was composed of Dr. L. T. Lawrence, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Dr. P. C. Crow, state senator, Elmer Brown, local county supervisor, and J. H. Jones, superintendent of Hope Schools.

"Many exceptional children, who are facing an uncertain future, may be helped to become useful citizens through a program of special training. The state is ready to lend aid for an instructional program for them," Haskell told the group.

Financial, legislative, eligibility, transportation, teaching staff and educational problems concerning this special program which is now being proposed in Hope were among the topics discussed. An appeal was made by the group to the classroom teachers for their assistance in this special school scheduled to be established here in the near future.

"Parents who have children mentally or physically handicapped to the extent that they are unable to attend public schools are being urged to fill out applications at the local high school office," J. H. Jones stated.

The speakers were introduced by Mrs. R. E. Jackson, program chairman, Mrs. Frank Boyd, Burket president, was in charge of the meeting. About 50 members attended.

Mrs. Ella Greene, 87, Succumbs in Local Hospital

Mrs. Ella Greene, aged 87, a resident of Hope, died early Wednesday in a local hospital. She had lived in this section of Arkansas since 1901.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Emma Hinton, Mrs. Helen Westfall and Edna Greene; seven sons, Joseph Roy, Burket, E. Oscar H., Dick C., Harold H., Robert A., and Lester H. Greene.

Funeral services are incomplete but will be held at New Hope Cemetery.

J. W. Laseter Dies in Hot Springs

Funeral services for J. W. Laseter, 57, who died at his home in Hot Springs Sunday, were held Tuesday. Military services will be held at Forrest Clark Cemetery in Sherbrooke today.

Survivors include two brothers, Pole and Hugh Laseter of Hope. He was employed by the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company 34 years.

Living Cost Goes to New Record High

WASHINGTON (UP)—Higher food prices and rents pushed the government's cost of living index to a record high mark today.

The rise to 115 per cent of the 1947-1949 average means a three-cent hourly wage boost, effective next month, for 1,300,000 rail workers.

This will boost annual pay roll costs of the railroads by 100 million dollars.

The index figure announced today records living costs as of Aug. 15. It advanced three-tenths of one per cent from the month previous.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) said beef and veal prices went up six per cent—the largest increase for these meats in any single month in more than five years.

This increase, coupled with smaller rises in other food costs, pushed the food index up three-tenths of one per cent.

Rents advanced 1.1 per cent during the month. Federal rent controls expired July 31.

On that date, 16 of 46 major cities surveyed for the monthly cost of living index still had federal rent controls.

Posses Tries to Nab Young Escapee

DIERKS (UP)—A convicted car thief who escaped from a deputy U. S. marshal yesterday was captured this morning as he strolled down a street in Dierks' business district.

City Marshal Robert Moore recognized the fugitive Howard Jackson from a description and arrested him. Moore told Sheriff Ambrose Chesshir that Jackson offered no resistance.

Sheriff Chesshir said Jackson had been turned over to federal officers, who will take him to a government reformatory near Texarkana to serve two years for transporting a stolen car across a state line.

Earlier this morning, officers thought Jackson was hiding in a heavily wooded area near Lockesburg. They surrounded the woods, but gave up the search shortly before the fugitive was captured.

Jackson, 29, escaped from the deputy marshal by climbing through a window in a service station rest room yesterday. He was being transferred from Fort Smith to Texarkana at the time.

LOCKESBURG, Ark. (UP)—A wooded area near here was surrounded by a posse early today in an attempt to capture an escaped federal prisoner.

The fugitive was identified as 29-year-old Howard Jackson, who escaped from a deputy U. S. marshal through a window in a service station rest room near here about 10:45 a. m. yesterday.

He was being transferred from Fort Smith to a federal prison at Texarkana when he escaped.

Jackson, under a two-year sentence for transporting a stolen car across a state line, was believed hiding in a dense forest near a grade school.

Roadblocks were set up on Highway 71-24 and 27 in an effort to prevent the sand-haired escapee from fleeing to Oklahoma, some 30 miles west of Lockesburg.

Youths Invited to Join Cub Scout Pack

All boys, 8 through 10 years old, interested in joining the Cub Scouts are invited to come with their parents to the first pack meeting of the school year, to be held at Garland School Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

It is necessary that one or both of the boy's parents attend, so they may sign his application. Although Cub Pack 62 is sponsored by Garland School PTA, boys from all the city grade schools are welcome.

Plans for the winter program of Cub Scouting will be made, and several new dens will be organized to take care of the new Cub Scouts. An advancement ceremony will honor those Cub Scouts who have earned awards during the past month.

Because of the Junior football games, the October and November pack meetings will be held on the fourth Monday night. After football season, the meetings will shift back to the fourth Thursday night.

Jury Acquits Publisher of Libel Charge

NOT SPRINGS (UP)—A Garland County Circuit Court jury today acquitted publisher Curtis Copeland of charges that he criminally libeled a Negro minister through articles published in Copeland's weekly newspaper, the Hot Springs Rubdown.

The jury, which heard testimony yesterday and attorney's arguments this morning, deliberated about an hour and a half.

It returned its verdict shortly after noon.

Copeland, who still faces other counts of criminal libel said he was "deeply gratified." He said he felt that actually he had been tried on all 16 counts and exonerated.

City Marshal Robert Moore recognized the fugitive Howard Jackson from a description and arrested him. Moore told Sheriff Ambrose Chesshir that Jackson offered no resistance.

Nixon Tells AFL Ike Never Has Broken Word

By NORMAN WALKER

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Vice President Nixon told the AFL convention today there may have been a "misunderstanding" regarding administration plans for amending the Taft-Hartley law, but President Eisenhower "never broke his word."

Former Secretary of Labor Martin Durkin, AFL plurality union president, told the convention yesterday he quit his Cabinet post two weeks ago because Eisenhower broke an agreement with him on T-H law changes to be submitted to Congress.

Nixon read the AFL convention a message from Eisenhower which, while not referring specifically to the controversy raised by Durkin, promised that the administration will offer T-H amendments to Congress next January.

Eisenhower's message also described the six-year-old T-H act as essentially sound and a statute which has made "a substantial contribution to the quest for sounder labor-management relations."

Nixon prefaced his reading of Eisenhower's message with some remarks of his own, received with polite applause by the convention delegates. He said that labor unions might differ with the administration's methods but that his mate President Eisenhower's policies would be successful.

Two More Die in Icebox Tragedies

BAINBRIDGE, Ga. (UP)—Two more children have died of suffocation in an abandoned icebox despite a father's fearful precautions to make such a tragedy "impossible" at his home.

Police said four-year-old Susan Hinchliffe, her playmate, John Moran, also 4, and their pet terrier died last yesterday when they accidentally became trapped in a refrigerator in the Hinchliffe garage.

Everett Hinchliffe said because of reports of the rising toll from such accidents across the nation he had taken careful precautions against just such a mishap.

"I'd read about such things and even thought about them but it just didn't seem possible it could happen here," he said.

"I had the garage wired so they couldn't get in it, and the refrigerator was filled with old boxes so there was no room for anything else, but they got in."

Police said the children were found jammed in the box, an unused electric refrigerator about six cubic feet in size, after they had been missing about three hours.

Police said the garage door apparently had become unfastened despite Hinchliffe's precautions. To get into the refrigerator, police said the children themselves had removed boxes and shelves from it.

The accident brought to at least 13 the number of youngsters who have died in refrigerators since June.

Iran Rounds Up 27 for Plotting

By JOSEPH MAZANDI
TEHRAN, Iran (UP)—Police have arrested 27 men suspected of plotting to assassinate Premier Fazlollah Zahedi, it was announced today.

As a result the government ordered all security agencies to intensify a drive against Communists and supporters of ousted Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, it was made known.

The 27 suspected assassination plotters were found strolling near Zahedi's home.

Two Communist Air Force officers attempted, before the announcements of the arrests, to blow up the Tehran gasoline depot of the Iranian Air Force, police said.

It was the first serious sabotage attempt against the new Royallist government since Mossadegh's ouster.

Sugar Heir Held for Beating Wife

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP)—Sugar heir Adolph Spreckels is to be held for superior court action on charges of beating his former wife, actress Kay Williams, Justice Donald J. Dodge says.

However, Dodge said yesterday he won't issue the order until Oct. 9 so that the court reporter will have time to transcribe the voluminous notes taken during the two-week preliminary hearing in Newport Justice Court.

Miss Williams testified Spreckels dragged her about by the hair, kicked her and beat her on the head with her nail-studded slipper Aug. 20.

DOROTHY DIX

Loves Married Man

Dear Miss Dix: My problem begins like so many others — "I fell in love with a married man in my office" — but I think there is truly a different angle to my case. The man was married only two months when I met him, yet was so unhappy that he spent most of his evenings drinking. His wife refused to leave her old neighborhood to move into a beautiful home he had built for her, and when he insisted on the move, she refused to do anything to fix up the house inside. About a year later, his wife became a mother, yet, due to home conditions, he was drinking quite heavily. I pulled him out of this, and for six months he has not had a drink. There has been no affair between us. I know I love him, but I don't know how he feels toward me. If I go away, he will take to drinking again. What shall I do?

LUCILLE K.
Answer: You are not in a particularly enviable role. You are being used as a support by a man who hasn't the stamina to face his problems without some outside stimulus. If his marriage failed after so short a period as two months, there certainly must have been some indication, during the courting period, that he and the girl were incompatible. My guess is that he married her as the line of least resistance, just as he is now relying on you to keep him away from liquor which, in turn, proved the easiest way out.

The man's wife may have many shortcomings, like most young brides. Artificial means of escape provide no solution and the man has done nothing but surrender to the first available source of comfort. That he's a charming companion isn't strange; most men of his type are. He is not a person of strength of character nor dependability, which are what most women want in a life companion. If you are skirting the fringe of this matrimonial mess with any idea of ultimately marrying the man, I strongly advise against it — unless, of course, you are prepared henceforth to shoulder all moral and emotional responsibilities for him.

Dear Miss Dix: After being a widower for several years, I have become interested in a woman my own age. At first, she seemed to return my interest but lately she has grown indifferent. How can I find out what has made her change, and rekindle her affection? ANDREW K.

Sunray to Build Pipeline

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The Sunray Oil Corp., confirmed today it is organizing the Oklahoma-Mississippi River Products Pipe Line, Inc., to build and operate an oil

Answer: Tell her you've noticed the change and ask the reason for it. However, I doubt if you can do anything to regain her interest and I strongly urge that you turn your energies to finding another congenial companion.

Dear Miss Dix: I am very much in love with Jerry, who is six years my senior. He is kind, considerate and affectionate. He has been married three times and so have I. I'd marry him in a minute if he'd ask me, but apparently my temper is the drawback. How can I curb it and prove worthy of him? M. T.

Answer: I bet your temper is what broke up your three previous marriages and I think you're pretty optimistic to think you can make a go of a fourth. At 30, you're old enough to learn to overcome a weakness and you had better make the attempt before marrying Jerry. His three marital failures indicate that as the "Happiest A-Head" signs are notably absent from your road to romance. Released by Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Sunray to Build Pipeline

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The Sunray Oil Corp., confirmed today it is organizing the Oklahoma-Mississippi River Products Pipe Line, Inc., to build and operate an oil products line from Oklahoma to the Mississippi River. Sunray said it is negotiating with contractors and others on plans for the line, which will be approximately 475 miles long.

As proposed, the line will run from Sunray Village at Duncan, Okla., where Sunray has a catalytic cracking refinery, to the Memphis, Tenn., area.

It probably will be routed across South Central Oklahoma, enter Arkansas in the vicinity of Fort Smith and pass close to Conway, North of Little Rock, the company added. Sunray, which so far has declined to disclose other details of the project, said its directors will meet here Oct. 5 to consider the corporation's part in the line. The Tulsa Tribune, however, said that for a distance of 88 miles from Duncan to Allen, Okla., the line would be 10 inches in diameter and for the remainder from Allen to West Memphis, Ark., it would be 12 inches.

Keeps its value better than any other car!

Used car dealers report that Fords return more of their original cost than any other car—and there are 41 reasons why:

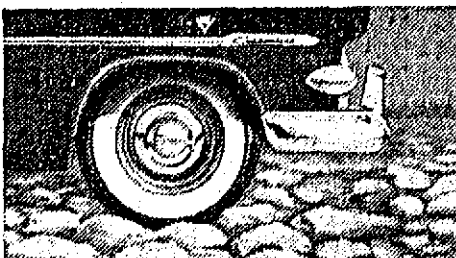

Take power. Ford's two high-compression engines are real leaders in their class. Ford's the only car in the low-price field to offer you the smooth power of a V-8 engine. And no other car in any field has so modern a Six.

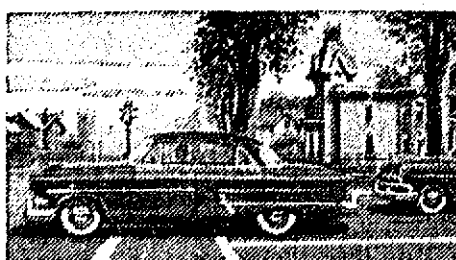

Take build. Ford's one-piece Crestmark body gives you style-setting beauty with rugged "built" underneath. Where many other cars are bolted, Fords are welded hull-tight to keep out rust-causing weather and dirt.

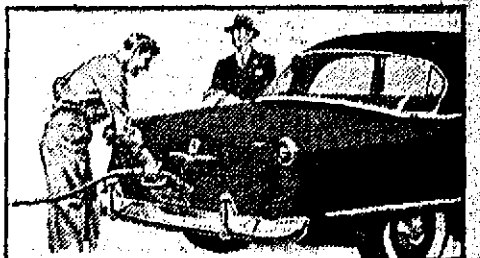

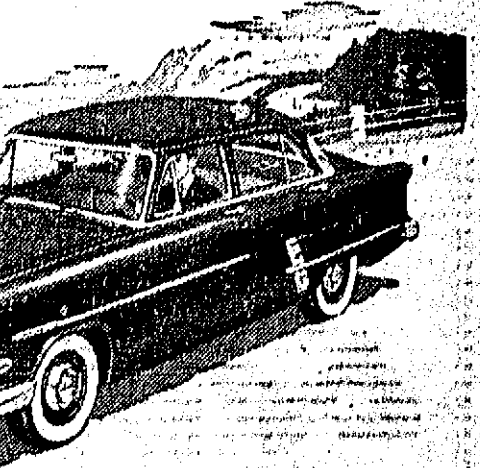

Take visibility. Ford gives you the "all-around" view you need in today's fast-moving traffic. A curved one-piece windshield, car-wide rear window and large "picture windows" all around make sure you have Full-Circle visibility.

Take ride. Ford's wonderful, new ride reduces front end shock up to 80%. And Ford's new, more responsive spring and shock absorber action gives you the comfortable easy ride you want without gas-eating extra weight.

Take savings. Ford's economy-minded Automatic Lower Pilot saves you money on every gallon of gas. It automatically adjusts carburetion, ignition and compression to make every drop of gas ("regular" at that) work its heart out.

Welcome Home "Max"

Hope and Arkansas Are Indeed Proud of You!

Lt. Murphy each of us is indeed happy to welcome you back home after spending 16 months in a Red internment Camp in Korea. Not only the people of Hope but all of Arkansas are indeed grateful for your part in the Korean War.

Again we are glad you are back and extend our congratulations and best wishes to you.

Lt. Roland "Max" Murphy
